

Client Alert: Cannabis Control Commission Issues Quarantine Order on Vaporizing Products

By Adam Barnosky on November 14, 2019

On November 12, 2019, the Cannabis Control Commission, through its Executive Director, issued a quarantine order on vaporizing products, based on the determination that vaporizers “pose an immediate or serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare and the quarantine is necessary to protect the public health, safety or welfare.”

The order is effective upon all marijuana establishments issued a final license by the CCC on or before November 12, 2019.

See the full text of the order here.

Adam Barnosky is a member of the Cannabis, Commercial Real Estate, and Hospitality & Retail Services Practice Groups, and represents clients in various capacities within the cannabis industry. His experience includes leasing and permitting of retail dispensaries and cultivation facilities, submission of regulatory filings, pursuing zoning and permitting approvals from state local authorities, and monitoring legislation and regulatory developments across the industry. Adam can be reached at arb@riw.com, (617) 570-3519, or on Twitter at @adambarnosky.

DISCLAIMER:

The content contained herein may include information regarding cannabis and its legality under Massachusetts law. While certain activities related to cannabis are lawful pursuant to Massachusetts laws, such activities remain unlawful under federal law. It is strongly advised to seek independent legal counsel regarding the differences between the state and federal cannabis laws.

POSTED IN: CANNABIS, NEWS

PROFESSIONALS

Adam Barnosky

PRACTICES

Cannabis