

Get to Know Attorney Eric Shediac

By RIW on April 23, 2024

Eric Shediac recently joined RIW in the Banking, Finance & Lending Department and the Commercial Real Estate Group. His practice represents institutional lenders in a wide range of credit facilities including asset-based loans, equipment leasing, commercial and industrial-based loans, real estate and asset acquisition loans, and construction loans. He also advises his lending clients through the workout process.

Why did you become a lawyer?

I value the constructive aspect of transactional law, and I enjoy working with clients. Their business goals inspire me, and I find great satisfaction in helping my clients materialize their visions.

Tell us about your career path.

I have been practicing for over twenty-five years as a transactional attorney including six years as a senior legal editor for Thomson Reuters' Practical Law.

Tell us about your practice.

I am a relationship-driven attorney with a broad range of transactional experience and business acumen focused on my clients' successes.

What do you love most about what you do?

Helping my clients achieve their goals.

Why did you choose the firm?

I chose RIW because of its outstanding reputation as a highly regarded law firm in Boston and the collegial atmosphere of the firm.

Tell us a fun or surprising fact about you.

I served as my high school's swim team's lumber jack mascot, and started each meet with a belly-flop into the pool!

What do you do in your free time?

I like to hike with my Jack Russell Terrier, watch my kids play sports, and spend time with

PROFESSIONALS

Eric T. Shediac

PRACTICES

Banking, Finance & Lending

my family.

POSTED IN: NEWS