

New Episode of Transaction Talk | Restaurant and Liquor Licensing Transactions

By RIW on September 19, 2024

Check out the latest episode of Transaction Talk featuring Adam Barnosky, Chair of the Restaurant and Hospitality Practice Group at Ruberto, Israel & Weiner. In this conversation, Adam delves into the unique challenges of restaurant transactions, discussing everything from liquor licensing and zoning permits to the intricacies of multi-unit franchising. He highlights how doing your due diligence is essential, particularly when reviewing lease agreements and navigating regulatory approvals, which often lead to longer timelines compared to other business deals. Adam also covers key issues such as employment claims, UCC liens, and whether to buy or lease restaurant properties, noting how each decision impacts the overall transaction. Tune in for valuable insights on handling the complexities of buying or selling restaurants, and discover why proper planning, patience, and the right team are crucial to closing a successful deal!
